

Regional Youth Work Unit—North East
In partnership with Voice 4 Change
ONE DAY FREE TRAINING COURSE

Engaging BME Communities in the Progress Project

The course is being subsidised by the Progress project - funded by Children's Workforce Development Council (CWDC) and led by the National Council for Voluntary Youth Service (NCVYS).

Target Groups

- Mainstream voluntary and community organisations (VCOs) already involved in Progress.
- BME voluntary and community organisations, learners and trainers interested in getting involved in the Progress Project.

One-Day FREE Training

The purpose of this training is to extend the roll out of the Progress Project to Black and Minority Ethnic (BME) communities in the North East. The purpose of the Progress Project is to build workforce capacity by enhancing the skills and training of those working with young people in the voluntary and community sector.

Aims of the day:

- To examine the challenges and issues involved in collaborative working between BME and mainstream VCOs.
- To identify practical strategies for developing greater co-working between the two sectors.
- To identify strategies and opportunities for increasing the engagement of BME communities in Progress.
